

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 20, 1996

SUBJECT: SB 2782 - HB 2442

This bill, if enacted, provides that in any trial that lasts over fourteen days, jurors are entitled to twice the normal daily rate of compensation in the affected county for each day the trial exceeds the fourteen days.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in local government expenditures. Such increase cannot be determined but is estimated to be not significant.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is also estimated to be an increase in state expenditures to the extent that jurors are sequestered. Such increase cannot be determined but is estimated to be not significant.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
